

International Workshop

3 – 5 May 2012

Imperial Space. The Organization of Near Eastern Empires from the Second Millennium BC to the Second Millennium AD

LOCATION
CONTACT

Topoi Building Dahlem, Hittorfstraße 18, 14195 Berlin, U-Bhf. Thielplatz (U3)
Judith Esders: judith.esders@topoi.org

EXCELLENCE
CLUSTER

TOPOI

Thursday, 3 May 2012

- 18.00 Welcome and introduction
- 18.15 Daniel Potts: "These are the lands which obey me": Reflections on the imperial instrumentarium

Friday, 4 May 2012

- 09.00 Eva Cancik-Kirschbaum: Assyrien – Vom Territorialstaat zum Imperium
- 09.50 Jörg Klinger: Die Organisation territorialer Herrschaft im hethitischen Reich
- 10.40 coffee break
- 11.10 Domink Bonatz: Perceiving Mittani imperial space: A material perspective
- 12.00 Kristin Kleber: The Neo-Babylonian empire and the transition to Persian rule
- 12.50 lunch break
- 14.00 Paul Kosmin: Seleucid Space
- 14.50 Laurent Capdetrey: The Seleucid kingdom: Empire or patchwork?
- 15.40 coffee break
- 16.10 Josef Wiesehöfer: Zentralismus vs. Regionalismus oder dynamisches Gleichgewicht? Raumwahrnehmung und Raumbeherrschung im Arsakidenreich
- 17.00 Ernst Baltrusch: Das Imperium Romanum – ein Imperium sine fine?

Saturday, 5 May 2012

- 09.00 Wouter Henkelman: Elam: Empire or imperial momentum?
- 09.50 Touraj Daryaee : Walls, rivers and the sacred space: Sasanian Iranshar(224-651 CE)
- 10.40 coffee break
- 11.10 Reuven Amitai: From military slavery to the rulers of Bilad al-Islam: The early Mamluk Sultans and their Empire
- 12.00 Michal Biran: World conquest and imperial space in the Mongol empire
- 12.50 lunch break
- 14.00 Beatrice Manz: Imperial symbolism and administrative realism in the early Timurid state
- 14.50 Christine Nölle-Karimi: Projections of power: Iran in Safavid times (1501-1722)
- 15.40 coffee break
- 16.10 Rudi Matthee: The Safavid empire: Links between the center and the periphery
- 17.00 Malte Fuhrmann: The city of joy. Spatial relations of power in late Ottoman maritime cities
- 17.50 Final discussion

